Capture the action at Dublin's top attractions, exhibitions, museums, galleries, beaches, parks, festivals, bars and restaurants. Discover what inspired the minds of Dublin's poets, sample the delights of its vibrant nightlife, immerse yourself in its rich and varied history or simply take a stroll. You'll find just some of the main attractions and landmarks on the tour route, with some hidden gems in between. Visit the Guinness storehouse, Kilmainham Gaol, O'Connell Street, the Aviva Stadium and Temple Bar but to name a few. Return back to hotel for overnight in Dublin. (B)

Day 3/ Dublin After breakfast, spend a day on Cliffs of Moher Tour (approx 14 hours) Including Wild Atlantic Way and Galway City from Dublin going from the east to the west of Ireland. Your unique Cliffs of Moher Tour will take you to Galway, the Wild Atlantic Way, The Burren, Cliffs of Moher, Lahinch, Kilmacduagh monastery, proper west of Ireland countryside and farms and much much more. Stopping at not just the Cliffs of Moher and Galway but also at Kilmachdough Abbey. You will then drive along a route that is filled with amazing views, Norman Tower houses, lakes, horses and other farm animals. A great way to see how real life and farming works in the West of Ireland. Stop at Kilmacduagh Monastery will be around 15 to 20 minutes. Then you will be arriving at the day's star-attraction - the magnificent Cliffs of Moher. With 1.5 hours to explore, you'll have ample time to walk along the 702 foot (214 metres) high cliffs, learn more about the natural wonder in the Cliffs of Moher Visitor Center, and take plenty of photos. Don't forget to do the ledge experience inside the visitor centre. Next you will stop for 30 minutes at the Burren. Where you can enjoy fantastic views out to the Aran Islands, Galway Bay and on a clear day the 12 Bens mountain range. You will now follow the entire Wild Atlantic way between Ennistymon and Galway. Passing historic landmarks such as Dunguaire Castle etc. And driving through villages like Kinvara, Ballyvaughan, and Kilfenora. After arriving in Galway, you will have 1 to 1.5 hours to explore this amazing little city with cobbled streets. Your guide will walk you to Shop Street & Lynch's castle. You will have the opportunity to explore the city on your own or join your guide in showing you to the main street of Galway. After Galway, head back to Dublin for overnight. (B)
